FAREWELL TO S. H. S.

(To the tune of Auf Wiederseh'n)

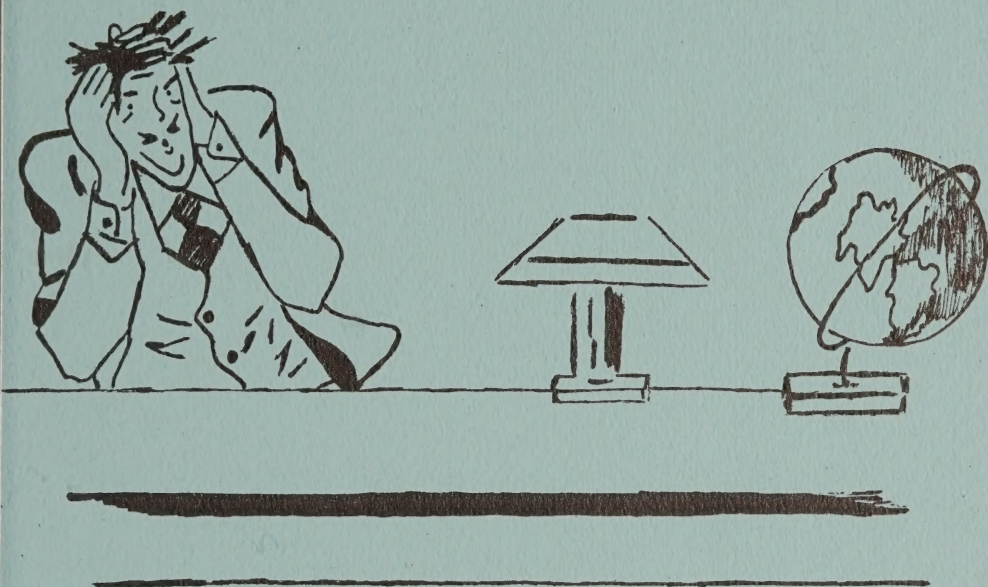

Oh Smithfield High,
Our Smithfield High
Oh how the days flew by;
This lovely year,
Has ended here,
The time has come to part;

Let's meet again,
Right here again,
Don't let the tear drops start;
With heart that's true,
I'll remember you,
Our Smithfield High, Good-by.

CLASS HISTORY

The first day of school in '41,
Some of us cried, some had fun.
Some clung to the skirts of their mothers, near.
Others wished they had never come here.

We went on through four grades of school,
Learning day by day, new facts and rules.
We left behind both "Dick and Jane",
And almost drove our teachers insane.

In the fifth grade we really must have been bad,
For look at all the many teachers we had!
Minton, Gwaltney, substitutes galore,
Dyar, Edwards and remember Mrs. Moore?

Our sixth and seventh grades we hardly remember,
But we recollect our Junior High as it approached September.
Miss Kennedy and Miss Hutter came to Smithfield this year,
And that was a memorable time for us here.

In our Freshman year, we discovered what High School meant,
This was the time when Wilson was our president.
Mr. Greenwood and Miss Cohen were our sponsors now,
And we managed to struggle through Algebra and Latin, somehow.

Joe was our president when we were Sophomores.
Mrs. Clayton and Mr. Taylor were our sponsors.
We dissected frogs and fish indoors
For our Biology teacher, Bob Johnson.

Edwina was president our eleventh year.
Isle of Wight students were welcomed here.
Our time was filled with work and fun.
These days will be remembered by everyone.

Our class rings came our Junior year.
You could see them shining far and near.
And our Prom, we really did that up right.
We certainly had a wonderful time that night!

We were Seniors, our president was Virginia Scott,
With Frank Turner next in line.
Ann Scott kept our minutes well,
As treasurer, Kate was fine.

We enjoyed giving our Senior plays,
And publishing "THE HAM".
We had fun on our Washington Trip days,
And the prom this year was grand.

Mrs. Gale, our sponsor helped us
During all our moods and Senior "fuss".
And Mr. Reveley, our good friend,
Put up with us until the very end.

Now to all our teachers we do owe
A debt of gratitude, as from here we go
To take our place in the world outside,
And their words of counsel with us will abide.

Then came the great day for which we awaited
But as we walked up the aisle we were not too elated.
For when we received our diplomas from Old Smithfield High,
We realized that to these happy years, we were saying goodbye.

By Virginia Scott

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Wilson Ames leaves his place on the annual staff to anyone who is fool enough to take it.
Thomas Author takes his curly hair with him.
Richard Atkins leaves a smile to all the girls.
Lillian Bailey leaves her bashful ways to Josephine Henry.
Jimmy Bullock leaves his ability to skip school to Charles Barlow who always gets caught.
Eloise Bryant leaves her ability to be the first bride before graduation to Emily Bryant.
Laura Barlow leaves her basketball uniform to either June or Shirley, whichever of them wishes to play center guard.
Kate Cobb leaves the basketballs in care of the next manager and hopes that the next manager will be able to keep up with them better than Kate did.
Evelyn Crocker leaves her desk in the Senior room to her sister, Pauline.
Billy Christian leaves his ability to translate Second Year Spanish to Mrs. White.
Joe Christian leaves in spite of Mrs. Robbins.
Curtis Drummond is just wondering???

Miles Edwards leaves his artistic ability to anyone who wants it.
Faye Edwards leaves her quiet ways to Alice Faye Smith.
Mary Lou Edwards leaves ten pounds to Muriel Haynes.
Delores Felts leaves her red hair to Carollee Adams in hopes she will never have to dye hers.
Barbara Goodrich leaves her quiet disposition to Dorothy Bailey.
Mary Barbee Gilliam leaves her tongue twisters to the Junior English Class and hopes they enjoy them as much as the Seniors did.
Davie Havery leaves his Essex to Elliot, just to keep it in the family.
Eunice Hall leaves her position as editor of the school paper to any poor soul who wants to tackle it.

Lois Haynes leaves Bobby Ramsey in care of Muriel.
Alvin Dillon leaves with Virginia's ring.
Billy Jones leaves after running out of alibies for Mrs. Robbins.
Ann Jones leaves her friendly disposition to Lynn Robinson.
Melvin Jordan leaves his way with the teachers to Sonny Gale.
Ann Scott leaves her last period study hall to anyone who wants to have a good time in the office.

Joyce Norfleet leaves her quiet disposition to Charlie Darden.
Melvin Minga leaves his Valentino ways to Jack Reveley.
Phyllis Ward leaves her place on the softball team to Mable Mitchell in hopes that she will become Captain.

Sidney Pittman leaves his red checkered shirt to Mrs. Saunders to be used for a table cloth.
Ann Williams leaves her ability to run errands for Mrs. Cox to anyone willing to take it.
Rosetta Reckley leaves her artistic ability to Lucy Gwaltney.
Dorothy Lankford leaves in a hurry to get married. Lucky Lawrence!
Mary Louise Warren leaves her brother, Fuzzy, to Mrs. Saunders in hopes she can calm him down a bit.

Edwina Sykes leaves Martha Ann a pair of lead weights for her cheerleading skirt so the fans can pay more attention to the game than to her left knee.
Betty Ramsey leaves her place on the cheerleading squad to Ann Rountree in hopes that Ann doesn't get as mixed up as Betty did.

Virginia Scott leaves her height to Toni Warren.
Clara Ann Scott leaves her ability to play basketball to her sister Violet and hopes that they win all the games next year.

Glen Scott leaves his nickname to anyone in school who thinks he is man enough to uphold it.
Bobbie Long leaves her ability to make Mr. Chipok angry to Sharon in hopes that she will hold it high, guard it well and use it often.

Frank Turner leaves after many hard years, and starts hitchhiking to Danville.
O. A. Spady leaves in spite of Mrs. Robbins.
Frank Pulley leaves his way with women to Billy K. Barlow.
Fred Wiggins leaves for Longwood.

Sylvia Watkins leaves her pretty black hair to Lucy Gwaltney in case she wants to make a change.
Franklin Wells leaves his brilliance to Jack Reveley and hopes Jack makes better use of it than Franklin did.

CLASS OF '53 HOLDS REUNION

BRIDGE PARTY AND LUNCHEON HELD AT TOWN HALL YESTERDAY

A luncheon was given in the Town Hall yesterday in honor of the young matrons of the returning class. Among those attending were the former Misses Lillian Bailey, Eloise Bryant, Faye Edwards, Lois Haynes, Dorothy Lankford, Phyllis Ward, and Betty Ramsey. An after dinner speech was delivered by Mary Barbee Gilliam, an alumna of the same class, now Head of the English Department at Westhampton College.

SUCCESSFUL LAWYER RETURNS FOR CLASS FESTIVITIES TONIGHT

Bobbie Long, prominent New York woman attorney, accompanied by her two private secretaries, Eunice Hall and Delores Felts, Class of '53, has flown to Smithfield tonight to attend the lavish banquet to be given in honor of the graduates. The three women will return to New York tomorrow morning.

TWO FORMER CLASSMATES FORM TEAM IN RICHMOND CHURCH

The Rev. Frank Turner who graduated from Smithfield High School in 1953 has recently been appointed minister of an outstanding Richmond Church.

Virginia Scott, SHS '53, a famous organist, has consented to be head choir director at the same church. Tuesday night at the reunion she will honor her old classmates with an organ concert.

TWO LOCAL MEN TO TEST SPACE SHIP

1st. Lt. Glenn Scott and Capt. O.A. Spady of the U.S. Air Force, stationed at Langley Field, are set to test the new XLOZ Space Ship. The date and place of the test is top secret. Tonight the two space cadets will show scale models of recent developments in space equipment to their former classmates.

TWO MEMBERS OF CLASS HOLD IMPORTANT POSTS IN ALASKA

Major William Christian of the U.S. Army has recently completed the plans for a tremendous span across the Bering Strait in Alaska. Thomas Arthur, noted contractor, will supervise the construction of the bridge. The two are unable to attend the reunion this week.

RESPONSIBLE FOR CLASS REUNION

Kate Cobb, principal of Four Square Academy, and Clara Ann Scott, girls physical education instructor at SHS, were in charge of sending invitations to the members of the Class of 1953 to attend their reunion being held this week.

LOCAL FARMER WINS CONTEST

Franklin Wells, prominent farmer won top honors yesterday at a 100 a bushel corn contest with 138.4 bushels per acre. Second place was won by Frank Pulley, and third by Miles Edwards. Other successful farmers entered were Melvin Jordan, Fred Wiggins, and Richard Atkins. The contest was Sponsored by county agent, Davie Haverly, and the latest developments in soil conservation were demonstrated by Alvin Dillon.

THREE YOUNG WOMEN OF CLASS NOW LIVING ABROAD

Miss Rosetta Reckley, now residing in Florence, Italy, will be absent from the reunion. Several of the artists famous portraits will be on display at the Town Hall this week. Ann Randolph Scott of the 1953 class also, is working on her Ph.D in French Literature at the Sorbonne in Paris.

Edwina Sykes who is also unable to be in Smithfield this week is acting as interpreter for the U.S.

Diplomatic Corps in Argentina.

NEEDED CLINIC ESTABLISHED IN ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY

Three famous physicians, Jimmy Bullock M.D., Joe Christian M.D., and Wilson Ames D.D.S., all members of the class of 1953 are responsible for founding the new clinic centrally located in Isle of Wight County. On the staff are also seven outstanding nurses of the same Class-Laura Barlow, Evelyn Crocker, Mary Lu Edwards, Barbara Mae Goodrich, Joyce Norfleet, Ann Williams, and Mary Louise Warren.

RESCUEMEN DESIGN NEW OCEAN LINER

Billy Jones, Melvin Minga, and Sydney Pittman, all employed by the Newport News Ship Building and Dry Dock Company, have recently finished plans for the new atomic powered ocean liner, "Melbisid". The three young men were graduated from S.H.S. in 1953. Ann Jones, manager of the Smithfield Theater, has consented to let her old classmates show slides of their proposed liner in the theater tonight.

HOLLYWOOD BOASTS NEW VALENTINO

It looks as if Hollywood has discovered a new Valentino. Curtis Drummond, S.H.S. '53, has recently been awarded 20th Century Wolf's plaque for "Lover of 1963". Mr. Drummond received this award for his outstanding performance in "Kiss Me Again".

FAMOUS NOVELIST ATTENDS REUNION

The advertisement is enclosed in a rectangular border. On the left, a cartoon character with a round head, large eyes, and a lightning-bolt-shaped body stands with one arm raised in a 'V' sign and the other pointing towards a tall, cylindrical electric water heater. Above the character are three overlapping rectangular boxes containing the words 'SAFE', 'CLEAN', and 'SURE'. The water heater has the words 'ELECTRIC WATER HEATER' printed vertically on its side. To the right of the water heater, the text '3 good reasons for hot-water-by-wire!' is written in a large, bold, sans-serif font. Below this, the phrase 'See Your Dealer' is written in a smaller, italicized font, followed by a small black dot. At the bottom, the words 'VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER COMPANY' are printed in a bold, sans-serif font.
